

Prayer for Lent 2025

Lord, I am not my own. I am a sinner, and I have fallen short of your glory. Yet, in your boundless love, you became a man, Jesus, to die on a cross in my place. Thank you, thank you for loving me with such immeasurable grace.

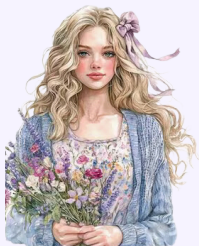

In this sacred season of Lent, may I truly understand the weight of your sacrifice. May I be crucified with Christ, letting go of the burdens that hold me back, the sins that entangle me, and the self that seeks its way. Grant me the strength to surrender, to lay down my pride, and to embrace the humility you modeled.

Lord, as I journey through these days of reflection and repentance, fill me with your Holy Spirit. Guide me in prayer, open my heart to your Word, and lead me in acts of love and service. May this Lent be a time of profound transformation, a time where I experience the death of my old self and the resurrection of a new life in you.

Help me to see your face in the faces of those I encounter, to extend your mercy to those who need it, and to live each day in grateful obedience.

Thank you, Jesus, for your unfailing love. Thank you for the cross, the empty tomb, and the promise of eternal life. May I truly live, not for myself, but for you.

In His Loving Name. Amen ♥

Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time,
1 Peter 5:6 (NIV)
